

The Parish Church of St Eustachius

Patronal Festival Celebrations

Saturday 15th & Sunday 16th September 2018

Join us to celebrate our Patronal Festival! All events are free and open to all.

SATURDAY 15th SEPTEMBER

11am to 4pm Medieval Fayre in St Eustachius's Churchyard

Tavistock Edge will be filling the churchyard with dance, song and drama. Come and join them! Part of the Tavistock Heritage Open Days. For details about the other Heritage events, see:

www.tavistockheritageopendays.org

Twitter @TavistockHODS Facebook @TavistockheritageOpenDays

12 noon Guided tour of the Church

Church historian Joan Torvell will lead the tour of our historic Parish Church. Please gather at the Font at 12 noon. Part of the Tavistock Heritage Open Days. The tour will last an hour.

12 noon 700th Raffle Draw in the Parish Centre

2.00pm Lecture: Tavistock Abbey

Noted local historian, lecturer, heritage consultant and archaeologist, Andrew Thompson will present an illustrated talk about the history of Tavistock Abbey. The talk will last an hour.

Refreshments will be available in church between lectures, from 3.00pm to 3.30pm

3.30pm Lecture: The Fair Arm of the Law

Historian, celebrated walking guide and retired police officer, Simon Dell, MBE, will present his fascinating talk on the history of women in the police force. This talk will last an hour.

SUNDAY 16th SEPTEMBER

9.45am Sung Eucharist

A service of Holy Communion with music. Preacher: The Vicar, the Very Reverend Dr Christopher Hardwick. The service lasts about an hour.

6.00pm Festival Choral Evensong

Tavistock Parish Church Choir will be joined by the Callington Singers and their director, Graham Williams and organist, Shaun Brown. The choirs will be singing music by Charles Villers Stanford, Felix Mendelssohn and Charles Wood.